

GO 2021-04

GENERAL ORDERS }
NO. 2021-04 }

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 3 February 2021

REASSIGNMENT OF UNITED STATES ARMY 1ST INFORMATION
OPERATIONS COMMAND FROM UNITED STATES ARMY INTELLIGENCE
AND SECURITY COMMAND TO THE UNITED STATES ARMY CYBER COMMAND

1. Effective 1 October 2021, Headquarters and Headquarters Detachment, 1st Information Operations Command (UIC: WNERAA) is reassigned, together with its authorities and responsibilities, subordinate elements, personnel, and resources (including funding and equipment) from United States Army Intelligence and Security Command (USAINSCOM), to United States Army Cyber Command (USARCYBER).
2. This directive pertains to the conduct of information operations under Secretary of the Army authority and does not involve combatant command authority vested by law in combatant commanders, nor does it alter the command relationships and authorities specified by the Secretary of Defense.
3. The Commanding General, USARCYBER will exercise all authority, direction, and command and control over 1st Information Operations Command.

[DAMO]

John E. Whitley
Acting Secretary of the Army

DISTRIBUTION: This publication is available in electronic media only and is intended for the Regular Army, Army National Guard/Army National Guard of the United States, and U.S. Army Reserve.