DISTINGUISHED SERVICE CROSS

By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved 9 July 1918, and amended 25 July 1963, the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action is awarded to:

Sergeant First Class Kyle A. Morgan for extraordinary heroism in action on 20 November 2015, while serving as a Team Leader operating against an enemy force in support of Overseas Contingency Operations. Without regard for his own safety, Sergeant First Class Morgan's valorous actions, dedication to duty, and willingness to place himself in great personal risk for the protection of others was critical to the success of a sensitive operation. Sergeant First Class Morgan's heroism reflects great credit upon himself, his unit, and the United States Army.
