No. 15

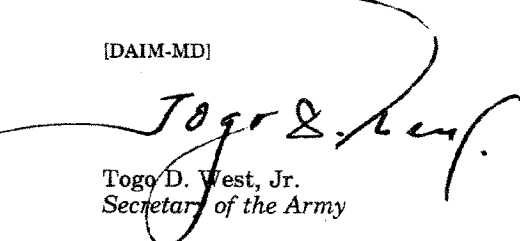

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 21 November 1995TRANSFER OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY MARKSMANSHIP UNIT

1. Effective 1 March 1995, the United States Army Marksmanship Unit (USAMU, WIDQAA) is attached to the United States Army Community and Family Support Center (CFSC, W4HAA), a Field Operating Agency of the Assistant Chief of Staff for Installation Management (ACSIM). Attachment is for all operational, administrative, legal, personnel, and fiscal matters under derivative Unit Identification Code (UIC) W4RH02. UIC WIDQAA is withdrawn.

2. Effective 16 October 1995, the USAMU is transferred from the U.S. Army Forces Command to CFSC. The USAMU will continue to be located at Fort Benning, Georgia, and receive non-reimbursable administrative, logistical, legal, and base operations support from the U.S. Army Infantry Center and Fort Benning.

3. The mission of the United States Army Marksmanship Unit is to select, equip, and train soldiers to compete and win in interservice, national, international, and Olympic marksmanship competitions; promote the United States Army by fostering public confidence in Army marksmanship through an active public information and public relations program that focuses on the accomplishments and capabilities of USAMU competitive shooters; and enhance Army combat readiness by providing lessons learned from competitive shooting to the various small arms proponents.
